EU ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL GOVERNANCE: TIMES OF EMERGENCY

The School of Law of UCLan Cyprus is pleased to announce, the delivery of a module on EU Economic and Financial Governance, focusing on the Constitutional and Financial perspectives of the Eurozone crisis and times of emergency. This is an exciting and timely module as it investigates the political and legal framework governing economic policy in the EU, the Economic and Monetary Union (EMU), fiscal policy as well as the regulation of banking and financial services within the EU and their increasing intermingling. Within this analysis the module also aims to draw particular emphasis on the role of democracy and the rule of law within the structure of EMU.

JEAN MONNET CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE

This module takes place within the framework of the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence entitled: CRoLEV (Centre for the Rule of Law and European Values). CRoLEV is funded by the European Union (Jean Monnet key action) and running at the School of Law of UCLan Cyprus (2022-2025). For more information, visit: <https://crolev.eu/>.

This module is relevant for any advanced student or professional interested in the current state of the EU and governance of the Economic and Monetary Union.

The module will be delivered in the English language at an intermediate-to-advanced level. It will be taking place in person at UCLan Cyprus campus. Note that some extracts may be recorded and/or published on the CRoLEV website.

Participation is free. To register, please click here.
For any information, please contact crolev@uclancyprus.ac.cy

The Course includes a simple assessment of learning for the project's purposes.
