CRoLEV Summer School

15-16 July 2024

UCLan Cyprus campus and on MS Teams

The Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence for the Rule of Law and European Values (CRoLEV) at the School of Law of the University of Central Lancashire in Cyprus (UCLan Cyprus) is organising the CRoLEV Summer School 2024. The event will take place in hybrid format—on campus at UCLan Cyprus and online, via MS Teams.

We are also delighted to announce that during the Summer School, we will launch our Interactive CRoLEV Dashboard. The Dashboard will display the results from our empirical work.

Call for Participants

The Summer School will focus on 'Rule of Law and Democratic Values in Times of Crisis' broadly construed and will be ideal for PhD students, early career researchers, advanced students in fields such as law, European studies, sociology, or politics, policy-makers, members of the civil society, stakeholders, and professionals.

The Summer School will employ a melange of formal and non-formal educational methodology, placing the learner at the epicentre of the learning process. It will include a series of interactive workshops and lectures led by experts, providing learners with the opportunity to actively engage in discussion.

Materials for the Summer School will be available electronically.
