MS TEAMS

The School of Law of UCLan Cyprus is pleased to announce the online intensive course on “The challenges presented by terrorism, human trafficking, people smuggling and illicit trafficking transactions”.

Against the background formed by the prevalence of terrorism, the ongoing conflicts in the Greater Middle East, the ongoing conflict in Ukraine, other ongoing or frozen conflicts, human trafficking, people smuggling, illicit financial activities and multiple other threats to the rule of law in modern Europe, this 10-hour online course considers the rationale behind, legal basis and practical consequences of the responses to these illicit activities at the national, regional, pan-European and global levels. In addition, the course seeks to familiarise participants with the rule of law and other key concepts in regular use within or beyond the relevant literature.

The course introduces a series of instructive case studies drawn from recent history. Particular emphasis is given to case studies affecting the United Kingdom (which, since 2020, has been outside the EU while staying within the Council of Europe), the Republic of Cyprus (which, since 2004, has been within the EU and the Council of Europe) and the EU.
